Description

An elegant antique Georgian mahogany sideboard dating from the late Georgian period, beautifully crafted in richly figured mahogany and brass gallery rail. Featuring a graceful serpentine front, finely proportioned reeded legs, and superb flame mahogany veneers throughout, this is a classic example of English Georgian furniture. The sideboard offers excellent practicality with a central arrangement of drawers flanked by deep bow-fronted storage compartments. The warm mahogany colour, beautiful figuring, and refined proportions make this piece equally suited to a dining room, hallway, study, or drawing room.
