Description

Antique 18th century Georgian cupboard in mahogany, very well made and of good quality. Featuring two drawers to the upper section above a two-door cupboard, with a single internal shelf providing useful storage space. Boasting gorgeous mahogany grain and rich colour throughout, this piece is beautifully inlaid with fine ebony stringing and retains its original key. Standing on elegant tapered legs terminating in spade feet, it is further enhanced by attractive carved details, showcasing the high level of craftsmanship and attention to detail associated with the Georgian period. A highly desirable example with excellent proportions and wonderful character, combining practicality with timeless elegance. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain and colour throughout, this is a stunning piece and a perfect addition to any home. Product Reference : AF - 5821
