Description

A fine quality Sheraton Revival mahogany corner cabinet, beautifully decorated with intricate satinwood, harewood and boxwood marquetry in the neoclassical manner. The cabinet is of elegant bow-fronted form, designed to fit neatly into the corner of a room whilst providing useful storage and display space. The pair of cupboard doors are veneered in richly figured flame mahogany and centred with finely inlaid classical urns suspended within oval reserves, a motif inspired by the work of the celebrated late 18th century cabinet maker Thomas Sheraton. Above, the shaped frieze is adorned with scrolling foliate marquetry, while the canted corners are embellished with further inlaid ornament. The cabinet stands on elegant tapering legs terminating in delicate inlaid detail. The top is particularly striking, featuring a fan-shaped marquetry panel with scrolling foliage and stylised floral motifs enclosed within a satinwood banded border, demonstrating the high level of craftsmanship associated with the Sheraton Revival movement. The interior is fitted with a shaped shelf, providing practical storage behind the lockable doors. Dimensions Height: 35 inches – 89cm Width: 27.5 inches...
