Description

A charming late 19th century walnut framed armchair of generous proportions, retaining its elegant Victorian outline. The shaped back is deeply buttoned and gently curved for comfort, whilst the padded scroll arms and deep seat provide a relaxed and inviting feel. The chair stands on concealed legs and castors, hidden beneath a pleated skirt, giving the piece a refined and graceful appearance. The chair has been recently upholstered in a striking floral fabric decorated with large roses, trailing foliage and colourful exotic birds upon a soft cream ground. The vibrant upholstery complements the traditional form of the chair and lends it a distinctive country house charm.
