Description

A rare and large 18th century Devonshire farmhouse table in wonderful pale oak, the cleated triple plank top above pegged and jointed base with single frieze drawer and original shaped spandrels. Original colour and patination. Would comfortably seat 10. English tables of this period, type and size are exceptionally hard to come by. This table would be ideal in an open plan kitchen dining area and would be a welcoming place for all of the family to enjoy every day of the year. England. C.1770
