Description

Henry H Parker British, (1858-1930) By the River Oil on board, signed Image size: 11.25 inches x 17.25 inches Size including frame: 19.25 inches x 25.25 inches A tranquil landscape scene by Henry H Parker of figures along the river Thames. A young man can be seen fishing from a boat near the bank as a young woman approaches on foot. On the far side of the river, cattle are shown at the water's edge while others graze in the meadow. Henry Parker was born in the St Pancras area of London on 27 June, 1860 and was christened Henry Deacon Hillier (or Hillyer) Parker. His parents were Thomas, a draughtsman and lithographer and Lucy Parker. The family lived in Gillies Street, St Pancras. He studied at the St Martin's School of Art and initially started his working life as an Illustrator for the Illustrated London News. However, by the age of 23 he had become known as a landscape painter. He married Charlotte Eliza Wilson in June, 1888 and together they had six children. His son Frederick became a draughtsman. He spent most of his adult life in Tottenham living at Elmer Road and later 13 Somerset Road. He died in London on 12 June, 1930. Parker mainly painted rustic views o...
