Description

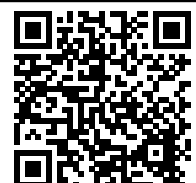

A quality Georgian revival usable piece of furniture! This is a very unusual piece of furniture as it is made of top-quality solid pitch pine as opposed to the usual oak or mahogany. This lovely early 20th century floor standing corner cabinet will provide a great addition to the sophisticated home interior. The elegant arched cornice sits over single door which opens to a fabric lined shelved interior. The base has a single panelled door opening to shelved cupboard, supported on bracket feet.
