Description

OFFERED AT AUCTION TRADE PRICE >> NO COMMISSION OR FEES TO PAY << INCLUDES FREE UK DELIVERY / Excluding Ireland Collectable Artist Robert George Talbot Kelly We are delighted to bring to the market this very desirable and sought after large watercolour painting depicting a beautiful view of Italian Lake Como by the highly collected artist Robert George Talbot Kelly RBA RI RBC FRGS, who has signed the painting in the lower left hand corner and dated it 1909. LAKE COMO located in northern Italy, is the third-largest Italian lake and is famous for its dramatic Y-shape, deep blue waters, and backdrop of the snow-capped Alps. Renowned for centuries, it blends natural beauty with historic villas, charming villages, and luxury tourism The painting depicts the lake with an arched wall covered in bougainvillea to the right of a long flight of steps, with a man with a pannier on his back walking down them. Within the arched wall is an iron gate which is the entrance to a boathouse. There is a lady and child further behind him on the path underneath the trees. ABOUT THE ARTIST Robert George Talbot Kelly was an orientalist, landscape and genre painter, author and illustrator...
