Description

19th Century Mahogany Breakfront Side Cabinet with 4 Doors and Brass Gallery

A handsome 19th century mahogany breakfront side cabinet of elegant proportions, crafted in richly figured mahogany and retaining its original classical character. The cabinet features a shaped breakfront design with four glazed doors fitted with decorative brass latticework over fabric-lined interiors, offering both practical storage and refined display space. Above the doors are three frieze drawers adorned with decorative brass rosette handles and a central working lock. The beautifully figured mahogany grain and warm patina highlight the quality of the craftsmanship, while the breakfront form creates a striking focal point in both traditional and contemporary interiors. Ideal as a dining room side cabinet, library cupboard, hallway storage piece, or statement cabinet in a living room, this versatile antique offers generous storage behind its doors while maintaining an elegant and sophisticated appearance.
