Description

A splendid burr walnut partners pedestal desk in the Queen Anne style. Dating to the early 20th century and manufactured and originally retailed by Maple & Co. of London. Of generous proportions and very good construction in solid walnut with attractive burr walnut veneers. The top section is fitted with its original sumptuous tan coloured leather writing surface. To the front are 3 drawers of "cushion" outline to the freeze. Each pedestal has 3 drawers to the front and a cupboard to the rear. The doors and drawers are cross banded and lockable (keys supplied). All standing on stylish ogee bracket feet. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops and now offered for sale in very good original condition, with a good colour and patina. Splits into 3 sections for ease of installation. Dimensions: Width 176cms Depth 90cms Height 75cms Knee hole height 60.5cms Knee hole width 78cms Maple & Co was established by John Maple, a shopkeeper from Horley, Surrey, who later opened a furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road. However it was his son, John Blundell Maple, who made Maples & Co a success. With exceptional business skills, John B. Maple took over the company while still a young man...
