Description

P0334 Stylish Arts and Crafts solid oak coat stand, having four shaped double hooks to each side on four outswept supports united by moulded umbrella holders and terminating in a square base enclosing an original drip tray. This antique coat stand has been sympathetically cleaned and waxed. The hall stand is showing some age related marks, gradation of colours, mellow patina and antique character. Bears original maker's label, Astrola. This is a fine example showing how Arts and Crafts principles of natural harmony and local materials evolve into modern architecture. c1930 H72.5" W15 3/4" D15 3/4" H184cm W40cm D40cm Astrola is a historic British furniture manufacturer known for producing high-quality, utilitarian office, school, and industrial furniture. Based in Hammersmith, London. Very well proportioned this coat rack would add style and elegance to both antique and modern interior.
