Description

A good example of a large antique copper cooking pot dating from the mid to late 19th Century. It is a good quality piece with neat seam, a rolled rim and a blacksmith made swing handle. It is in good condition for its age and there are no major damages, splits or holes. There are some minor dinks and dents and signs of age and use but nothing untoward and it displays well. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
