Description

A handsome antique 18th century oak dresser of generous proportions, comprising a substantial dresser base and associated open plate rack above. Richly coloured throughout, the piece displays attractive figured oak timbers and a wonderful depth of patina developed over time. The dresser base features three drawers to the frieze, each fitted with brass knobs, above a pair of panelled cupboard doors opening to useful storage. The upper rack is fitted with three fixed shelves set against a boarded back, beneath a moulded cornice with a row of traditional hooks. A charming example. Item Reference: M-6895B . Dimensions: Height – 197cm / Width – 137cm / Depth – 56cm / Surface Height - 96.5cm . CONDITION REPORT In good antique condition throughout with signs of age and use. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches, knocks and rubbing consistent with use. The shelves and boarded back to the rack show expected wear, marks and historic staining from use and display, as photographed. Evidence of historic woodworm is present in places, though this is long inactive and the piece has been treated as a precaution. There are historic repairs and alterations.
