Description

A good antique Windsor armchair in the traditional manner. The chair has a shaped top rail above a pierced central splat flanked by turned spindle supports. The shaped arms are raised on turned upright supports above a solid shaped seat. Raised on four turned legs united by crinoline stretcher supports beneath. The chair has been stripped leaving a particularly good pale colour throughout with visible wear and variation to the timber adding to the overall character of the piece. A lovely example. Item Reference: M-6926 Dimensions: Height – 109.5cm / Width – 76cm / Depth – 62cm / Seat Height - 45cm . CONDITION REPORT In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and wear to the arms, seat and legs commensurate with age and use. There is minor evidence of historic woodworm in places which is long gone and has been treated as a precautionary measure. The antique Windsor chair remains structurally solid and sound with good tight joints. Overall, a rather pleasing example. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection. This ensures that ...
