Description

This fine quality Chinese inlaid picture or wall hanging is made from a panel of beautifully grained golden solid hardwood which has been intricately carved out and inlaid with different coloured raised, and shaped stones. The stones are finely carved with good detail. The artist has used the different natural colours of each stone to represent the elements in the picture. Together they are showing a three dimensional scene with three traditionally dressed people, a man and woman being greeted by another man. They are standing before a building with a fenced garden and exotic trees. The inlaid panel has been simply framed with a Chinese ebonised frame which is original. This pleasing and decorative work of art is in very good original condition. Chinese, circa 1900
