Description

This exquisite late 19th-century Chinese export lacquer cabinet is a stunning testament to traditional craftsmanship. Standing on an elegantly carved wooden frame, it features intricate floral motifs meticulously hand-carved and lacquered in vibrant hues of orange, green, and gold. The two front doors are adorned with a dramatic dragon and peony design, symbolizing strength and prosperity. Inside, the cabinet reveals multiple drawers, each embellished with delicate floral inlays, offering both beauty and functionality. The rich black lacquer base complements the vivid carvings, making it a striking focal point in any setting, embodying the elegance of Chinese artistry and design.
