Description

A fine Victorian walnut games table dating from the mid-19th century. Constructed in solid walnut and walnut veneers, the rectangular top with rounded corners is decorated with a more recently added hand-painted games-board motif incorporating the word "WHITES" and various symbolic devices. The top rotates to reveal a storage compartment for games before unfolding to reveal a generous red baize playing surface, retaining its original gaming function. Raised on an elegant carved pedestal support issuing from a shaped platform base with scroll-carved feet and original castors. A decorative and functional Victorian games table with excellent colour and patina. H:73 W: 45 to 89 D: 91 cm
