Description

This lovely trio of antique picture frames are a sampling a range of frames that we carry. They are all French and date to the same period, C. 1890. The round frame features a detailed inner and outer rim, with a band of green onyx in-between. The rectangular frame has a gadrooned boarder around the outer edge with an oval cut out and a floral motif decorating the top. The oval frame features a large insert area with a unadorned band around it and a simple beaded trim around the outer edge. All of the frames have a decorative back leg support. The frames range from £300 to £450, depending on the frame. Please email us for a specific inquiry. Please note: the measurements listed are for the rectangular frame. Origin: French, C. 1890 Condition: Excellent
