Description

A good example of a Georgian toddy ladle with a long ebonised twisted handle and a solid Silver bowl with pouring spout. The ladle is good quality and the bowl has an inset coin which appears to be a silver George III shilling dated 1787. It is hallmarked for London, 1811, Josiah Snatt. It is in good condition for its age although it has been well used. There are some small dinks and dents around the ladle and the rim as well as some faint surface marks and a few light scratches. The handle has a few knocks but there aren't any major damages and it displays well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. Approximate Measurements : Length : 14" / 36cm Bowl : 4" / 10cm x 2 1/4" / 6cm. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
