Description

An attractive 18th century Welsh oak corner cupboard of two-part construction. The cupboard has a pair of panelled doors to the upper section, opening to reveal shaped corner shelves. The lower section is fitted with a further pair of panelled cupboard doors enclosing a single shelf. Raised on bracket feet with a moulded cornice above. The cupboard separates into two sections for ease of transport. It has a lovely rich colour and patina, giving it great presence and character. A particularly pleasing example. Item Reference: M-6687 . Dimensions: Height – 198.5cm / Width – 90cm / Depth – 56cm . CONDITION REPORT In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, knocks and scratches consistent with use. There is minor damage and loss to the front right-hand side of the lower cupboard section as pictured. The cupboard remains structurally solid and sound throughout. Historic wear and variations in colour are present throughout the oak, adding to its character and age. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in...
