Description

An attractive 18th century oak coffer of good colour and proportions. The coffer has a three-panel hinged lid opening to a spacious interior with a fitted candle box to one side. The front is richly carved with repeating floral motifs, beneath a carved frieze and central lock plate. Raised on stile supports. A good honest example with plenty of character and a pleasing aged patina. Item Reference: M-6628 . Dimensions: Height – 60cm / Width – 144cm / Depth – 55cm . CONDITION REPORT In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, knocks and scratches consistent with age. The top shows historic wear and staining. There is evidence of historic woodworm, though this is long gone and has been treated as a precaution. The coffer remains structurally solid and sound and retains its original character. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home. We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
