Description

An exceptional Neo-Gothic carved oak three-tier hanging shelf of superb proportions, c.1880. The crocketed pierced gallery sits above three rectangular shelves flanked by grotesque masks with gothic arched sides. The whole piece is exceptionally well carved with extraordinary attention to detail throughout. There are some small losses, most notably one leaf of the centre raised spindle, and a notch to the right front spire (please see photographs). Historic repairs evident verso. A fantastic thing.
