Description

Margaret Hicks (1923 - 2006), Framed Oil on Board, Jack Russell / Terrier Dog Portrait (American). Margaret Talbert Hicks (American, 1923-2006), original oil painting on board depicting a Jack Russell or Terrier-type dog in profile, wearing a collar. The dog is centrally positioned against a dark, subtly textured background, emphasizing its alert posture and expressive features. Signed by the artist at lower right. Presented in an ornate gilt frame. Born in Philadelphia in 1923, Margaret Talbert Hicks graduated from Temple University, and then taught in Philadelphia elementary schools. She followed her Army Officer husband to his overseas assignments, studying art in Germany, teaching in American schools abroad and tutoring soldiers. When the family settled in Washington, D.C., she taught school for a year and then became a full-time artist. Hicks specialised in miniature paintings of representational subjects, such as landscapes, still lifes and occasional portraits, painting mostly from life with small watercolor brushes and a magnifying glass, on finely woven canvases or wooden panels measuring 2 to 4 inches wide. Her paintings and other artwork were shown in exh...
