Description

A Regency mahogany occasional table, the finely figured single-plank solid octagonal top with shallow edge moulding set over three ring-turned pillars, above a triform platform centred by a turned roundel, all raised on three outswept legs. Positioned beside a fireside armchair, the table serves beautifully as an elegant wine table, providing a sophisticated classical silhouette that can be easily repositioned as required. Very good antique condition, the mahogany retains a beautiful historic lustre with a deep, undisturbed patination. Structurally entirely stable, clean and ready to place. English, circa 1820.
