Description

Antique Victorian pine painted dressing table with original mirror and classic farmhouse charm. This piece features a solid pine construction with a later painted finish giving it a soft, rustic look that suits both traditional and modern interiors. The dressing table offers practical storage with two smaller top drawers and two larger drawers below, all fitted with simple round wooden knobs. The attached mirror is framed by turned supports, adding to its period character and functionality. A versatile piece ideal for use as a dressing table or chest of drawers in a bedroom setting. The proportions make it a useful size while still providing good storage capacity. Condition is in keeping with age and use with surface wear, marks and imperfections to the paintwork which enhance its antique appeal. Dimensions H: 140 x W: 91 x D: 44 cm
