Description

Signed oil on canvas by the Flemish artist Octave Soudan (1872–1947), also known as Octaaf Soudan, was a Flemish painter and draughtsman. He was associated with the second Latemse School and is best remembered for his Post-Impressionist landscapes of the Flemish Ardennes. Born in Oudenaarde on October 4, 1872; passed away in Sint-Denijs-Westrem on March 19, 1947. He lived in the Laethem-Saint-Martin and Sint-Denijs-Westrem areas (near Ghent) beginning in 1934, drawing inspiration from the Leie river landscape. His early training was grounded in realistic, decorative painting. Over time, his style evolved into a distinct Post-Impressionist approach, focusing on the natural beauty of the region. Art Market & Tributes Subjects: His surviving body of work features picturesque pastoral scenes, including river landscapes, windmills, haystacks, and quiet courtyards. Dimensions - 50 x 60 cm
