Description

Antique 19th century Victorian pair of bedside cabinets, very well made and of good quality. Each cabinet features a large cupboard door to the front opening to reveal a useful internal shelf, with both pieces retaining their original knob handles. Designed to open opposite ways, these cabinets are perfectly suited for placement on either side of a bed, making them a particularly desirable and practical matching pair. Standing on plinth bases, they offer excellent proportions and useful storage while maintaining their Victorian charm and character. Boasting gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, this is a rare find of a particularly generous size. The quality craftsmanship and attractive appearance make these cabinets both functional and decorative. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain and colour throughout, this highly desirable pair would make a wonderful addition to any bedroom and a perfect addition to any home.
