Description

19th Century, G .J. Lines, Decorative Wooden Rocking Horse on Stand (English). Decorative wooden rocking horse with glass eyes on stand, scraped back to its original paint, with original leather saddle and strapping to the bridle. The Lines family produced high-quality rocking horses for almost a century, including many novel designs. George and Joseph Lines worked together from Circa. 1876 to develop G & J Lines which became one of the largest toy-makers in Britain. CONDITION: Scraped back to its original paint. No mane. Superb patina overall. COLLECTION: Buyer must collect, or arrange collection, from Westbury, Wiltshire. WEBSITE: For more information or more detailed images, please visit our website: <https://www.WhiteSpaceAntiques.com>
