Description

Taxidermy 8-point white-tailed deer shoulder mount by Anthony Ford, signed on the reverse. A well-executed piece of taxidermy, displaying a natural, alert expression and a good, even coat. The antlers have a strong, symmetrical formation with eight clean points, giving the mount real presence on the wall. The craftsmanship is confident and tidy, with well-set eyes, neatly finished ears and a balanced overall form. A striking decorative addition for a lodge, study or country interior, and a quality example from a known contemporary taxidermist. Internal reference : SAI4153
