Description

18th Century, Life-Size, Carved Wood Figure of a Man (Santos) on Plinth (Italian) Dating to late 17th/early 18th century, this rare sculpted, life-size male figure is very realistic with an expressive and posed face, and well-carved male torso and genitalia, raised on polychrome and gilt plinth. CONDITION: Wear commensurate with age. Beautiful patina garnered over two centuries. PROVENANCE: From the Estate of renowned antique historian and collector, Eddi Van Auken (1946 - 2024), in California who acquired it from Il Segno del Tempo, Milan, Italy. Previously it was listed as a 'Possesso Importante' in a Private Estate Inventory of a Benedictine Monastery in Milan. COLLECTION: Buyer must collect, or arrange collection, from Westbury, Wiltshire. WEBSITE: For more information or more detailed images, please visit our website: <https://www.WhiteSpaceAntiques.com>
