Description

Antique 20th century set of eight dining chairs in burr walnut, very well made and of good quality. Comprising two carver chairs and six single chairs, this impressive set showcases exceptional craftsmanship and elegant design throughout. Boasting breathtaking burr walnut grain and stunning figuring, these chairs display rich colour and beautiful natural character from every angle. Each chair stands on graceful cabriole legs with finely carved knees, adding to their charm and decorative appeal. The chairs retain their attractive patterned drop-in seats, providing both comfort and practicality while complementing the warmth of the walnut beautifully. The combination of quality materials, elegant styling and refined proportions makes this a particularly desirable dining set. Presented in good condition, with solid frames and no movement, this highly desirable set displays beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout. A stunning and practical suite of dining chairs, that has to be seen in person to be truly appreciated.
