Description

A striking and highly decorative 19th Century Japanese Rose Medallion porcelain table lamp, mounted in an exceptional gilt bronze ormolu base and collar. Beautifully hand-painted throughout, the porcelain body is decorated in the traditional Rose Medallion palette with finely detailed court scenes, figures, floral sprays, butterflies, and symbolic decorative motifs. The vibrant enamels and intricate hand-painted decoration create a wonderfully rich and colourful display from every angle. The vase is enhanced by an impressive gilt bronze mount of exceptional quality. The pierced scrolling base and finely cast upper collar provide an elegant contrast against the delicate porcelain decoration while adding a luxurious decorative presence. The overall proportions make this an ideal statement lamp for a console table, sideboard, desk, or bedside setting. Pieces of this quality continue to attract collectors of Asian decorative arts and interior designers seeking unique statement lighting. Combining fine craftsmanship, artistic decoration, and practical functionality, this lamp offers both decorative appeal and long-term collectability. Whether placed within a traditional co...
