Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian tapestry stool in walnut, very well made and highly decorative. Featuring a beautiful tapestry upholstered seat, adding colour, character and charm to this elegant piece. Standing on decorative legs united by a supporting stretcher, the stool showcases the quality craftsmanship and refined styling associated with the Edwardian period. Its attractive proportions and decorative design make it both practical and visually appealing. Boasting gorgeous walnut grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example with plenty of character and warmth. The combination of the decorative tapestry seat and beautifully crafted frame creates a piece that would complement a wide range of interiors. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this charming Edwardian stool would make a wonderful addition to any home.
