Description

A handsome pair of walnut framed armchairs, retaining their brown leather upholstery with close-nailed brass studded borders. The shaped backs and generous serpentine seats are supported on elegant cabriole legs, with swept arms terminating in scroll hand rests. The walnut frames display attractive figuring and warm colour throughout, complementing the rich tones of the leather upholstery. Comfortable and practical, these chairs would work equally well as desk, library or occasional chairs. Presented in good condition with light age-related wear consistent with use. Circa 1900
