Description

Antique 19th century Victorian carved oak side table, very well made and of good quality. Beautifully carved throughout with a high level of attention to detail, this attractive piece showcases the craftsmanship and decorative styling associated with the Victorian period. Featuring a raised gallery to the top and a supporting stretcher below, the table combines practicality with elegant design. The carved decoration includes beautiful imagery, adding character and visual interest from every angle. Boasting gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout, this is a particularly desirable example with pleasing proportions and a highly versatile size. The quality of the carving and warmth of the timber make it a striking addition to any interior. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this charming Victorian side table would make a wonderful addition to any home.
