Description

For your consideration is this very stylish 1930's Art Deco very rare and impressive, square walnut cased, Art Deco mantel clock, powered by a Famous Haller (Germany). The clock has a typical Art Deco design with a rare rectangular shaped case, with a rare open front. The case is a warm conker brown colour tone, the protruding chrome-plated individual numerals and hands off set the casing beautiful. This a large clock that will enhance any room. Perfect mantle areas or sideboards. This clock defiantly won't disappoint. The 8-day half-hour striking movement, made in the 1930s works perfectly. This famous company was one of the top clock makers in the 19th to early 20th century. Having been fully and professionally restored, the movement has been ultrasonically overhauled, examined, repaired and serviced. The Chiming clock is now presented in excellent antique condition, ticks nicely, in great working order, and produces wonderful strikes and chimes. It has been tested for over 4 weeks, and now nearly century-old clock should give you plenty of pleasure with the appealing ting-tang chimes. FREE DELIVERY FOR ALL UK CUSTOMERS
