Description

A fine William IV mahogany writing table, the solid single piece top with a low three-quarter gallery set over two frieze drawers, all raised on four crisply turned legs. With a shallow footprint designed to sit flush against a wall, this versatile piece functions beautifully as a bedroom chamber or dressing table, or equally well as a side table in a hallway or sitting room. Very good antique condition with minor surface wear consistent with age. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1830.
