It is a wonderfully tactile and atmospheric work that exemplifies the post-impressionist spirit of the mid-20th-century British school. Condition: The painting is in generally good condition. It has a small hole in each corner of the canvas which appear to be from drawing pins. The frame is in good condition with some knocks and marks commensurate with age. Frame: Height 60cm x Width 50cm. Canvas: Height 51cm x Width 40cm.
