Description

A handsome antique 19th Century Welsh oak dresser, originating from the Swansea Valley. The dresser features a five-drawer base above a potboard, with elegant turned front legs and attractive turned feet to the front, and square legs to the rear. The drawers are framed with cockbeaded edges and fitted with later brass swan-neck handles, replacing an earlier set of wooden knobs. Above sits a well-proportioned three-shelf plate rack complete with original hooks, and fitted with brackets ready for wall fixing. Lovely rich oak colour and patina throughout; a very attractive example. Item Reference: M-6914 . Dimensions: Height – 210cm / Width – 144cm / Depth – 44cm / Surface Height - 85cm . CONDITION REPORT Condition Report Presented in good antique condition with age-related wear throughout, including marks, scratches and knocks consistent with use. There is a loss to the cockbeaded edge of the rack and a crack to the cornice, as shown in the photographs. The brass swan-neck handles are later replacements for an earlier set of wooden knobs, as evidenced on drawer fronts. The dresser is solid and sturdy throughout. Overall, a lovely piece.
