Description

A stunning set of three antique dining chairs, beautifully crafted in solid wood and full of period character. These elegant chairs feature richly carved Baroque-inspired crest rails, classic barley twist legs, and highly decorative carved stretchers, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship throughout. The chairs retain their beautifully detailed original frames with deep, warm wood tones and intricate hand-carved scrollwork to both the backs and front stretchers. The tall backs create a striking silhouette while also offering good support. Each chair is upholstered in an attractive ornate damask fabric in warm terracotta and gold tones, complementing the dark wood beautifully and adding a luxurious traditional feel. The upholstery remains in very good condition and presents exceptionally well. These chairs would work wonderfully as dining chairs, statement hallway chairs, or decorative accent pieces in a period or eclectic interior. A highly decorative and increasingly sought-after set with genuine antique charm. Seat Height: 46 cm Very good antique condition. Structurally solid and sturdy throughout with no looseness to the frames. The carved details remain crisp and...
