Description

A fine Victorian mahogany wardrobe dating to circa 1860, constructed in three sections for ease of transportation and installation. The wardrobe is beautifully figured throughout, displaying rich colour and attractive grain, with elegant moulded panel doors and carved decorative details to the upper panels. The interior is fitted with a hanging rail and three useful drawers, providing ample storage for clothing and accessories. Standing on a plinth base beneath a substantial cornice, this is a well-proportioned and practical piece of Victorian furniture. Presented in good condition and ready for use.
