Description

Early C19th Regency period quartetto of brass inlaid rosewood 'nesting' occasional tables. Smart set of 4 graduated size rosewood rectangular occasional tables with brass moulded edges and having double brass inlaid lines of varying widths to the tops . Raised on turned leg bases with scroll feet , the smallest with a turned stretcher. All in excellent original strong and stable condition, the largest table with a slightly lighter patina from natural exposure to sunlight. No breaks , damage, repairs or losses. Minor marks and wear to the figured rosewood tops commensurate with age, use and purpose. A useful set of 'nesting' tables of practical scale and proportions.
