Description

This is a wonderful pair of oak chest of drawers, beautifully crafted and full of character. Each chest features 3 drawers fitted with classic turned wooden gallery knobs. The timber has been treated with a waxed finish that accentuates the striking, prominent grain patterns of the oak. Key Features & Details Condition & Finish: Professionally waxed. There are colour differentiations between the two pieces, so please use the pictures to help form part of the description, as the colours do differ and they have their own unique grains. Versatility: An incredibly useful and functional pair. Thanks to their compact proportions, they are perfectly suited for a variety of spaces across the home. They could effortlessly be used as bedside chests in a bedroom, or as elegant side chests / end tables in a lounge or dining room setup. Circa 1930. Height 71 cm Depth 35 Width 46
