Description

Description A wonderful late Victorian glass and silver-plated EPNS claret jug dating to c.1890–1910. It has a swan-neck pouring lip with hinged flip lid and silver-plated mount bearing the maker's mark Mappin & Hall & Co. The elegant rattan-wound handle is beautifully formed, complementing the compressed globular body which stands on a circular star-cut foot. The handle is particularly well designed and remains in exceptional original condition. A high-quality piece. Date & Origin England, c.1890–1910, Period of Queen Victoria. Condition Excellent condition. The rattan handle is perfect, the EPNS mount is free from scratches, the flip lid works perfectly and the glass is clean and clear internally. No chips, cracks or restoration. Dimensions Height: 18 cm Diameter: 14.5 cm

Internal Ref: 2026031302
