Description

A good Georgian oak corner cabinet constructed in two sections. Designed to fit neatly into a corner, with a pair of panelled doors to the upper section and a further cupboard below, enclosing shaped corner shelves throughout. The oak has a pleasing warm mid-brown colour with good variation across the timber and a naturally aged surface. The doors are fitted with fielded panels, while the lower section features simple crossbanded detailing which adds contrast to the front. The cabinet retains a good honest patina, with wear and character consistent with age and use. Item Reference: M-6935 . Dimensions: Height – 214cm / Width – 107cm / Depth – 66cm Condition Report: Good solid condition throughout. General marks, knocks and wear commensurate with age and use. Various surface scratches and scuffs, particularly to the interior shelves and lower mouldings. The interior shows historic wear and staining from use. Overall structurally sound and ready for use.
