Description

A handsome pair of Georgian Revival Gainsborough armchairs of generous proportions, raised on square fluted front legs with elegant swept rear legs, united by an H-frame stretcher for added strength and stability. The arm supports are of a graceful swept form and are finely fluted, reflecting the classic Georgian design influence. Each chair is upholstered in dark green leather hide, complemented by traditional antique brass studwork that neatly outlines the upholstery and enhances the chairs' timeless character. Well-proportioned and comfortable, these chairs offer both decorative appeal and practical seating, making them ideal for a study, library, drawing room, or gentleman's office. Presented in good condition. Size: Height 46" (117cm) Width 24" (61cm) Depth 32" (81cm) Seat height 18" (46cm)
