Description

A handsome 19th-century oak linen press cupboard of two-part construction, offering excellent storage and classic period character. The upper section features a pair of panelled cupboard doors opening to reveal two fixed shelves, framed by attractive carved barley twist columns and surmounted by a moulded cornice. The lower section comprises an arrangement of two short drawers over two long drawers, all fitted with turned wooden knobs. Good colour and patina throughout, the cupboard displays a deep oak tone and attractive grain, making it a striking and practical piece. Item Reference: M-6939 . Dimensions: Height – 208.5cm / Width – 136cm / Depth – 57cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition with signs of age and use consistent with its years. There is a small crack to the beading on the right-hand upper door and damage to the knob on the top right drawer. The piece displays age-related marks, knocks and scratches and minor surface wear. There is evidence of historic woodworm to the back, which is long gone and has been treated as a precaution. Overall, the cupboard remains solid and sturdy, with all drawers running smoothly.
