Description

A pretty scalloped-edge brooch and earrings in solid silver, set with hexagonally cut amethysts. Beautifully detailed with engraved botanical patterns typical of the Victorian Aesthetic period (c.1885-1901), with applied rose gold. • Condition: Both the earrings and the brooch are in excellent antique condition. • Fixing: The earrings fix with secure ear wires which are likely a later addition. The brooch closes with a typical C clasp. • Era: Estimated Victorian c.late 19th century. • Hallmarks/stamps: None; the metal tests as sterling silver throughout. • Size: The earrings measure approx 2cm diameter and the brooch is around 3.5cm across. • Weight: The earrings together weigh 5.8g, the brooch is 8.0g.
