

SA1219945

A fine Derby Porcelain Porter
Mug with a scene 'Near Newark, Nottinghamshire'
c.1810

Price

GBP 875

| USD $1,184 | EUR 1,024

Item Reference: SA1219945

Date of manufacture: Georgian

Dimensions

Height = 11.5 cm (4.5")

Width = 11.5 cm (4.5")

Description

A very fine Derby Porcelain Porter Mug c.1810 Duesbury & Kean period. Of cylindrical shape with an angular handle, the main body, finely painted in coloured enamels with a scene of a traveller within a rural setting framed by a rectangular gilt band titled in red to the base 'Near Newark, Nottinghamshire, all reserved on a white ground with gilt anthemion and palmette decoration in gold. Crown over crossed batons and letter 'D' in red along with title to the base. Condition: Excellent Provenance: Geoffrey Bond Collection Porter is a style of beer that was developed in London in the early 18th century. It is well-hopped and dark in appearance owing to the use of brown malt

Seller Details

Fine Antique English Porcelain

Exeter Devon United Kingdom

Tel: 07791 358757

International Tel: +44 7791 358757

