Description

An unusual Victorian oak domed top butterfly opening tea caddy with decorative silver plated fittings c.1900. The solid figured oak box with chamfered edge plinth to the foot and hinged domed top opening from the centre. Silver plated decorative fittings to the corners, the top, and complementing fleur-des-lis design drop handles to the sides. The hinged lid opening from both sides to reveal a fitted interior with two silver plated lids and surrounds, which form two caddies to store the tea, plus original green baized finish to the interior of the hinged lids. A most unusual item, superbly made and presented in excellent original with a rich polish and immaculate fittings. Keep up to date via our Instagram channel - sturmansantiques.
